

Spring

*Spring iz sprung, da grass iz riz,
I wonder where dem boidies iz?
Da little boids is on da wing.
Ain't dat absoid?
Da little wings iz on da boid*

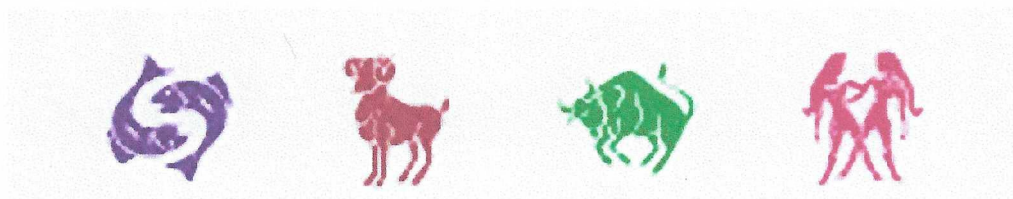

Some facts about spring 2020

- ❖ Called Lent in Old English, in the 14th century also called springing time when plants are springing from the ground. In the 15th century this got shortened to springtime and then further shortened in the 16th century to just spring.
 - It starts at different times. On the astronomical calendar the first day of spring is 20 March, the Vernal Equinox and it ends on 20 June, the Summer Solstice. For meteorologists, spring starts on 1 March and runs until 31 May.
 - Snow? Many say you're more likely to see snow at Easter than at Christmas. But Easter is a moveable feast so it might depend on exactly when Easter falls.
 - Vernal Equinox 12 hours of daylight and 12 hours of darkness.
 - ◆ Full moons 9 March, Worm Moon, 8 April, Pink Moon and 7 May, Flower Moon.

How many of these did you live through?

- ❖ The warmest spring was in 2011 with an average daytime temp of 9.2 °C.
- ❖ The coldest spring was in 1962 with an average daytime maximum of 5.8 °C.
- ❖ The wettest spring was in 1947 with 331.7 mm of rainfall.

Spring

I know this poster is titled Spring but this is a Catch up section

What an autumn and winter for rain!!

A popular rhyme in many countries from long ago

- In 1687 it went:
*Rain raine goe away
Come again a Saturday*
- Lots of alternatives. I remember:
Come on mother's washing day!
Which wasn't very nice!
- And in many languages – Spanish:
*Lluvia Lluvia vete
Vuelve algún otra día*

BUT

This is the best one I've found

5th Wettest Autumn

During September, October and November, for the whole of the UK – 348.3 mm

Wettest Winter

Provisional figures suggest that the UK has had its wettest winter since records began – 469.7 mm.

Why do we feel happier and have more energy on sunny days?

Is it psychological? Is it the sunlight?

Do sun's rays increase some of our hormone levels making us feel happier and have more energy?

Whatever – it's GREAT ☀️ ☀️ ☀️

Spring

The 2020 Star Count?

How many stars visible within the quadrangle of Orion, 21 to 28 February?

So many cloudy evenings during that week in February so only managed to see the 3 stars of Orion's Belt within the quadrangle on the Wednesday. The nebula of Orion's Sword was only a vague blur.

Storm Chiara Damage

Arborists at work making safe after trees were blown over.

Seventeen trees were affected in the woodland causing the closure of the path.

Pleased to say that not one of the trees in the rest of the park suffered – the work recommended by the 2018 Tree Survey having been done.

Spring

The New Car Park

The machinery arrived at 7.15 am on 17th February. Excavation began on 418 m² behind the pavilion with the removal of soil and subsoil to a depth of 20 cm. So many springs were discovered that small drains were dug to disperse the running water.

MOT (Ministry of Transport) crushed stone laid on the weed-control membrane and was then rolled with a compactor roller before a top-coat dressing of granite grit was spread.

Whole surface is porous unlike tarmac.

Now open and ready for use. That tractor gets everywhere!
