

Trees

*And in the field Beech, Oak, Horse Chestnut and Cherry

*And in Dr Jack's Not leaf buds but flowers - Hazel catkins

Trees

As Sarah Coleridge's poem says
'Dull November brings the blast
Down from the trees the leaves fall fast'

And so it was this year – the wonderful Autumn colours seemed to go on and on but once November arrived the leaves all fell.
The branches were leafless!

But on a closer look there were buds all over the place.
The trees were preparing their leaves. Here are some:

an Ash sapling

In the Woodland

